

Thank you for your interest in King Alfred Academy. We are excited about all that God is doing in helping this school be a powerful ministry in our community and we recognize that teachers are a vital part of our mission. We are committed to providing our students with the best education possible and we take the responsibility given to us by parents very seriously. We strive for excellence in every area of our school.

As a Classical Christian school, we seek teachers who:

1. Have an active, deepening relationship with the Lord and a desire to mentor and invest in our students' spiritual and intellectual lives.
2. Maintain the highest standards of personal conduct in all aspects of their lives.
3. Have expertise and passion about what they teach.
4. Have an openness and willingness to learn the Classical model and apply it to their teaching and will support the school's approach to education.
5. Are willing to promote and manage a high level of parent involvement and provide regular communication with our students' families.
6. Will be able to skillfully manage a classroom with a variety of academic skills and learning styles.
7. Are life-long learners and committed to growing professionally.
8. Are creative thinkers who will present their subjects to students in an engaging, interactive, and impactful way.
9. Are community-minded and who will participate in the life of the school through helping with service projects, extracurricular activities, and sponsoring clubs and programs for our students.

We are looking for committed Christian teachers who are dedicated to the mission, vision, and values of King Alfred Academy.

King Alfred Academy does not discriminate on the basis of age, gender, national origin, race, or ethnicity. Background searches are performed prior to all offers of employment.
